

HOW CAN I LEARN REIKI

Verified

Reiki Practitioner

All the training that I offer; is completed in small groups to ensure that you, as the student are given the most complete learning experience possible and with the sole outcome of ensuring that you walk away with the confidence to use your new skills.

Choosing the right Master for you is essential and a massive message that was passed on to me from my Master.

It is the start of an unbelievable journey of self-healing, self-awareness and personal growth.

Being at ease and comfort with your Master is paramount to maximise your learning experience, to enable your own growth and gain the ongoing support from your Master and hopefully your long lasting Friend.

Reiki is trained in four levels.

The first degree of training initiates you to be able to give yourself healing treatments. This is an important level as ultimately Reiki is about healing yourself and this also restores your harmony and balance and prepares your inner channels for the next levels.

The Second Degree of Reiki heightens and deepens your flow of energy and your commitment to Reiki itself. You can also, if you wish, give Reiki to others on a professional level after the full training period has been completed.

The Master Practitioner, or third degree deepens your level of commitment even further. And the final stage enables you to teach others.

Feel free to have any discussions with me to help you make your decision. It is a huge decision and needs to be right for both parties.

Also Offered:

A 10 month mentored training which incorporates both levels I and II Reiki, personal practice, advanced training and more.

Reiki - 1st Degree

The first degree of Reiki is for people who wish to learn how to heal themselves and others.

The course is an initial, full 2 day course or 4 consecutive days of approx. 3 hours, followed by a 21 day period of self-healing and then an additional follow up to complete the course.

This affords the time to really soak in the teachings and practice the techniques; enabling you to leave with a real confidence.

REIKI MASTER AND TEACHER TRAINING

This is discussed individually with interested parties.

Considerable experience is required.

Sometimes students wish to take the third level to deepen and heighten their own practices and this can be delivered on a one to one basis.

I encourage all students to have considerable experience with their Reiki journey before embarking on this latter journey.

So many times I have come across people who have told me that they have had training a number of years ago but just didn't seem to get to grips with it after the training and lost confidence – and that is such a shame.

It is your experience, your stories, and your level of expertise that you are able to pass on to your students and consequently you need to be in that place and position to do this from your heart to theirs.

If this feels like you, then contact me and let's arrange a Skype call to discuss your journey and your future plans.

All certification is awarded by Chi-Ki Coaching and Training.
